

Red Oaks Partners represent you and are your property manager. We are NOT real estate agents. However we are happy to put you in contact with the best local agents and to accompany you on site visits, provide assistance in conversations with agents, purchasing preliminary contracts, closings, and in general to be available for any help you may need during the acquisition process.